

The Dorchester Hotel

Summerville, South Carolina

Hospitality

This public/private complex was an urban mixed-use project in downtown Summerville including a 66 room boutique hotel with amenities, a restaurant, a 27 unit residential condominium project, a 10,000 sq. ft. conference center and a parking garage.

The project was designed to reflect the historic character of Summerville and to blend into the downtown context.

Client
Applegate and Company / City of Summerville

Completion
2016

