

577 Meeting Street

Charleston, South Carolina

Residential

This is a multi-family/mixed use project with 118 residential units on five levels over a two story garage podium. The projects include three existing historic buildings which were adaptively renovated for retail/amenity space. An exterior courtyard was created between the new building and the existing building.

