

229 Huger Street Office Building

Charleston, South Carolina

Office

This project included modifying and adapting a design previously designed by another firm for a four-story 14,000 sq. ft. building including updating the structural framing, changing the exterior wall and window design, and enlarging the footprint. Our work also involved securing BAR Design approvals.

